Short Bio Note (100 words). : I am a current student of international affairs with the background of Political Science from Delhi University. I have never stayed at one place for more than 2 and ½ years therefore in my schooling days I have changed 10 schools. I am well versed in three language English, Hindi and Gujarati also having beginner level proficiency in Arabic and Persian/Dari. Active and enthusiastic participant and keeps a curiosity to learn new things. I always have an itch to explore areas which has remained underrated. My new found interest is to learn more about migrants and refugees especially adjoining Indian border along with human rights issues.

Research Topic: Forced Migration leads to Human Trafficking at Indo-Bangladesh Border
