

FARSEEN ALI P.V

Farseen Ali P.V is an M.Phil research scholar in Social Work at Madras School of Social Work, Chennai. He has completed his M.A in Social Work with distinction from the Department of Social Work, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi and B.A in English Language and Literature from University of Calicut. He has previously associated with Katha India and Voice of Slum as a Social Work Trainee as part of his Master's course and has worked as a Correspondent at Athma Creative Lab, a media company in Kerala. He was an Indian delegate at the Commonwealth Youth Dialogue Conference on Peace and Security 2019, organized by the Commonwealth Secretariat and the Royal Commonwealth Society. He has worked with KMCC as a researcher cum co-ordinator for a documentation project on the Survival of Malayali Migrant Communities in the Middle East, South Asia, Europe, and America and has also volunteered with UN-OHCHR for their Crowdsourcing Project of Best Practices during Covid19 in Kerala. His area of interest includes Refugees, Human Rights, International Social Work, and Peace Building.