

SHORT BIO NOTE

Itty Abraham is Associate Professor of Government and Asian Studies at the University of Texas at Austin and former director of the UT South Asia Institute. He has held appointments at the East-West Center, George Washington University, Stanford University, and the Social Science Research Council (SSRC). He is the author of The Making of the Indian Atomic Bomb: Science, Secrecy and the Postcolonial State, editor of the South Asian Cultures of the Bomb: Atomic Publics and the State in India and Pakistan, co-editor of Illicit Flows and Criminal Things: States, Borders and the other Side of Globalization, and Political Violence in South and Southeast Asia, and numerous articles, book chapters and research reports.