

Prof Mouleshri Vyas

Professor , Mumbai campus

Centre for Community Organisation and Development Practice , School of Social Work - Mumbai Campus

Qualification

M.A. (TISS), Ph.D. (Mumbai)

Mouleshri Vyas is a Professor at the Tata Institute of Social Science at the Centre for Community Organisation and Development Practices and a board member of CRG. She is also a member of the Board of Studies, Faculty of Social Work, MS University, Baroda. She has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from Mumbai University, Master of Arts in Social Work (with Specialisation in Urban and Rural Community Development) from TISS, Mumbai, and Ph.D. in Sociology from Mumbai University.

Has nearly three decades of teaching, research, field action and training expertise in the areas of urban and rural community development, community organisation, informal labour, post-disaster interventions, social impact assessments and monitoring and evaluation of development projects, social accountability and social audit of government programmes, and capacity building for corporate social responsibility initiatives.

Has worked closely with grassroots organisations, government departments, corporates and trade unions.

Associated with the International Center for Development and Decent Work (ICDD), a global consortium of universities.

Has visited and engaged with universities in various countries as part of teaching and research collaborations.