Short Bio Note (100 words): As a law student, I am interested in migration laws and refugee rights. I would like to examine these in the broader context of public international law. I am also interested in humanitarian laws, environmental laws, international criminal law, and media laws. I hope to contribute gainfully to the research group, and assist the group in every manner possible. I aspire to pursue my masters in Refugee Law and Rights and build a career in policy-making and advocacy.

ResearchTopic:Environmental Refugees (subject to discussion with my Mentor)
