

Trisha Ghosh

At Manipal University, I am pursuing a master's degree in geopolitics and international relations. Interning at the Calcutta Research Group in Kolkata for three months (March to May 23). My areas of interest in geopolitics are Gender Issues, Migration, and the media. My study has focused primarily on South Asian and Chinese issues to date. Throughout my Bachelor's and Master's degrees, I was involved with collage-based newsletters. During the Russia-Ukraine conflict, I discussed the gendered impact of the refugee crisis in a university presentation.
