

◆ School of Social Work, Tata Institute of Social Sciences & Calcutta Research Group

invite you for a

SPECIAL LECTURE

BY

PROFESSOR SANJAY BARBORA

MODERATOR: PROFESSOR BYASDEB DASGUPTA

DATE & TIME: 5 AUGUST 2022- 4.30PM

VENUE: LIBRARY CONFERENCE HALL, TISS, MUMBAI

Development Dilemmas: A Political Ecology of the Future from What is Happening in Tinsukia District, Assam

School of Social Work
School of Law, Rights and Constitutional
Governance, Tata Institute of Social Sciences
& Calcutta Research Group

Inaugural Session

Introduction of Seminar:

Prof. Mouleshri Vyas

Welcome Address:

Prof. Bipin Jojo, Dean, SSW

Keynote address :

Prof Dolly Kikon

School of Social Work
School of Law, Rights and Constitutional
Governance, Tata Institute of Social Sciences
& Calcutta Research Group

Panel Discussion

Prof Sunil Santha: Small-scale Fisheries and the Blue Economy: Understanding Migration in a Warming World

Prof Sohini Sengupta: Droughts and Dislocations in the Context of Climate Change

Dr Devisha Sasidevan: Climate Change Resilience in the Context of Migration

Chair: Prof Manish K Jha

School of Social Work
School of Law, Rights and Constitutional
Governance, Tata Institute of Social Sciences &
Calcutta Research Group

Paper Presentation

Ms Deeksha: Migration for healthcare in India: Thinking through the lens of climate change and development.

Ms Shubha Srishti: Climate change, flood, and migration: A case study of Kosi region of Bihar.

Ms Sonu Tewari: Hidden in plain sight: Women's lived experience of forced displacement in Sundarbans.

Mr Chandra Prakash: Migration, Statelessness and Repatriation: A Study of Entrepreneurial Opportunities and its impact

Chair: Prof. K. M. Parivelan

