

Half-day Consultative Meeting on
Defining Keywords in Refugee and Migration Studies organised by
Calcutta Research Group
in collaboration with
Rosa-Luxemburg Stiftung-South Asia

Date: 29.06.2022,

Venue: Meeting Hall, Calcutta Research Group (IA 48 (ground floor), Sector-III, Salt Lake, Kolkata-700097)

2.00-2.30 pm: Registration and tea

2.30-3.00 pm: Introduction to the proposed volume by Priya Singh, Asia in Global Affairs, Kolkata

Comments on the need for a volume: Paula Banerjee, University of Calcutta and CRG, Kolkata

3.00-3.30 pm: Displacement and Migration due to Global Warming and Climate Change

Introduction: TBD

Each participant and expert will suggest 3-4 keywords on the volume

Discussion on the definitions of suggested keywords

3.30-4.00 pm: Role of Ethics, Care and Public Health in Present-day South Asia

Introduction: Manish K Jha, TISS, Mumbai

Suggestions on the possible Keywords (Each participant will suggest 3-4 keywords)

Discussion on the definitions of suggested keywords

4.00-4.15 pm: Tea

4.15-4.45 pm: Migrants, Refugees and the idea of Rights and Citizenship in the Global Protection Regime

Introduction: Nasreen Chowdhury, University of Delhi, Delhi.

Suggestions on the possible Keywords (Each participant will suggest 3-4 keywords)

Discussion on the definitions of suggested keywords

4.45-5.15 pm: Precarious conditions of women and transgender migrants during and after the pandemic

Introduction: Samata Biswas, The Sanskrit College and University & CRG, Kolkata

Suggestions on the possible Keywords (Each participant will suggest 3-4 keywords)

Discussion on the definitions of suggested keywords

5.15-5.45 pm: Challenges of migrant labours in the post-pandemic era

Introduction: Ranabir Samaddar, CRG, Kolkata

Suggestions of the possible keywords (Each participant will suggest 3-4 keywords)

Discussion on the definitions of suggested keywords

5.45-6.00 pm: Summing up the discussion by Paula Banerjee

6.00 pm: Vote of Thanks by Debashree Chakraborty, CRG.